

1731 FINE & RARE

THIS UNIQUE COLLECTION OF RUMS from the Caribbean and South America explores a diverse array of Latin flavors and countries. Far more than just a brand name, 1731 represents a new perspective on rum, bringing great taste dating back centuries right here to your glass. The history books mark 1731 as the year that the British Royal Navy started offering its sailors a half-pint of rum as part of their wages. Today, 1731 stands for a unique range of rums, each with a distinctive character that speaks volumes about place of origin.
